Food allergies occur in more than 12 million Americans and the prevalence is rising. It is estimated that anaphylaxis caused by food results in 150 to 200 deaths each year. Eliminating food errors will provide a safe environment for patients with severe food allergies.

To suggest a topic, please email wellness@rochesterregional.org. To read the full article, click the linked title or contact the Werner Medical Library.

- Sergeant P, et al. (2003). Food safety of allergic patients in hospitals: implementation of a quality strategy to ensure correct management. European Annals of Allergy and Clinical Immunology, 35(4), 120-123.

Bibliography compiled by Mary McVicar Keim, M.S.